WESTFIELD RESIDENTS HEAD GALA FUNDRAISER FOR NEWARK SCHOOL

(Newark, NJ – October 29, 2009) Westfield residents Lenore and Robert Davis are co-chairing A Taste of Newark, a gala fundraiser for Link Community School in Newark. The benefit, slated for Thursday, November 12 at 5:30 pm at the New Jersey Performing Arts Center in Newark, will feature an evening of delicious food from the finest restaurants and culinary establishments in and around Newark, exciting silent and live auctions and thrilling student performances.

An event of the magnitude of A Taste of Newark takes almost a year of planning and preparation and depends on many volunteers to be successful. Along with the Davis', other Westfield residents have joined in the effort, including Steve Fisher, who serves on the Sponsorship Committee, seeking companies and individuals willing to support the event. His wife, Marci, along with Hilary Abramowitz, who also lives in Westfield, are members of the auction subcommittee and are busily securing items for the auction and wrapping them for display.

The proceeds of the gala provide about one-quarter of Link Community School's operating budget. Link, located in the Central Ward of Newark, is an independent middle school serving the youth of a range of abilities from families of limited means in Newark and the surrounding area. Link's highly effective learning community grounded in Core Values and a challenging college-bound curriculum prepares students for academic and lifelong success.
